

About your Loan Officer,

Justin Escarciga

NMLS #2437642

Justin Escarciga is a loan specialist with FSI Mortgage. He was born and raised in Salt Lake City, Utah. A proud graduate of Salt Lake Community College where he served as the South Region Vice President for 2 terms and from there attended the University of Utah.

Justin worked part time for FSI Mortgage while he attended high school, assisting in marketing and mailers. He's spent several years learning the industry. After he graduated from Murray High in 2010, he operated a food truck at the airport during the new Delta terminal build where his hard work and determination helped him discover his love and passion for customer service. Making sure his clients are taken care of and are happy is his top priority.

In his free time, he can be found with his family, in the great outdoors, at Fan X or performing as a musician.
